

Updated Pricing Offered for Follett Software Destiny Resource Management Solutions

ERAC's agreement with Follett International for Destiny Library Manager and Destiny Textbook Manager for Districts has been renewed for one year.

The new agreement offers discounts for districts that purchase an annual license for one or both of the Follett solutions; there are additional discounts for districts that purchase a license prior to December 1, 2009.

Summary

This agreement includes the following components:

- The Destiny Library Manager system
- The Destiny Textbook Manager system
- Discounted prices for one or both Follett solutions

This offer is available to ERAC member districts. It includes price discounts based on the number of students in schools in a participating district. The costs also include training for district library staff, project management, software installation and technical training for IT staff. This agreement now offers a limited, per-school fee in smaller districts. For a fee, districts may also integrate many of the components of ERAC's Online Resource Database Bundle into Follett's OneSearch service.

Timeline

Available April 1, 2009 – March 31, 2010
