

Publication Browse

The Publication Authority File lists the information contained in a database according to journal or magazine name.

To browse a Publication Authority File:

1. From the Database Information & Title Lists Screen, click the Title List link. The Publication List appears with the beginning of the list displayed.

2. Enter your search terms in the Browse for field. You can enter all or part of a publication name. (For example, you could enter Time.)
3. Select a search type. Click one:
 - Alphabetical - Finds journals beginning with the letters you entered. Results are displayed in alphabetical order.
 - By Subject & Description - Finds publications that carry that term in the Subject, Description or Title fields of the Publication Details.

4. Click Browse to view your terms as they appear in the Publication Authority File. A Result List is displayed.
5. Browse the list by using the scroll bar or the arrow keys to move up or down the current page, or by using the up or down arrows at the top and bottom of the page.

For a description of the journal or publication, click the hyperlinked Publication Name. The information found in the Publication Details may include: the title, ISSN, publisher information (name, address, publisher URL), title history, bibliographic record and full text coverage, publication type, the subject and/or a description of the journal, and whether the journal is peer reviewed.

Hyperlinks to all issues are displayed in a column on the right side of the screen. If the journal displays a title history, you can switch between All Issues in the history or Current Title Only (the issues for the current title being displayed).

Marking Items for Search

You can use the Mark Items for Search feature to search several publications at the same time, or to combine publication names with other search terms.

To search for several publications at the same time:

1. With the Publication Result List displayed, mark the check boxes to the left of the publications you want to search.
2. Click Add. The publications you selected are placed in the Find field on the Search Screen. (They are combined with "or.")
 - To search within those publications, click Search.
 - To revise your search, you can add more terms in the Find field and click Search.

For example, enter science in the Browse for field and click Browse. You could then mark the publications Science and Society and Science as Culture, and click Add. Your selections would be posted in the Find field as:

JN "Science & Society" OR JN "Science as Culture"

You could click Search, and obtain results from both publications. You could also edit your search in the Find field, adding "and humanity" to your search. This would provide a different set of search results.

To search within a publication:

1. From a journal's Publication Detail screen, click the Search within this publication link.

The screenshot shows the Student Research Center interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo and text "Student Research Center powered by EBSCOhost". To the right, there are links for "Sign In", "Folder", "Preferences", and "Help". Below this, there are buttons for "New Search", "Dictionary", "Encyclopedia", "AP Sources", and "Teacher Resources". The main content area is titled "Database: Middle Search Plus Publications". Below this, there is a "Publications" tab. A navigation bar includes "Back", "Previous Record", "Next Record", "Search within this publication", and "Journal Alert". The main content is divided into two columns: "Publication Details For 'Time'" and "All Issues".
